Snotty Receptionist

Yesterday I had an appointment to see the urologist for a prostate exam.

Of course I was a bit on edge because all my friends have either gone under the knife or had those pellets implanted.

The waiting room was filled with patients.

As I approached the receptionist's desk,
I noticed that she was a large unfriendly woman who looked like a Sumo wrestler.

I gave her my name, and in a very loud voice, she said,
"YES, I HAVE YOUR NAME HERE.

YOU WANT TO SEE THE DOCTOR ABOUT IMPOTENCE, RIGHT?

All the patients in the waiting room snapped their heads around to look at me, a now very embarrassed man.

But as usual, I recovered quickly, and in an equally loud voice replied,
"NO, I'VE COME TO INQUIRE ABOUT A SEX CHANGE OPERATION, BUT I DON'T WANT THE SAME DOCTOR THAT DID YOURS!"

The room erupted in applause!

DON'T MESS WITH OLD RETIRED GUYS

Due to my shy and retiring nature, I find it hard to speak in public.
I do have some basic ideas bullet points not fleshed out proposals.

1) Put every member on the cleaning roster. They will know when they are working well in advance.
Perhaps make each person responsible for their replacement if they cannot attend.

2) Similarly with the BBQ roster.

3) Have any member who has an item for sale, trade or gift. Bring 1 item 1 day per month (Day to be decided)
Unwanted items to be taken home, not left at the shed.
Another option would be to use the bulletin for members to offer items for free or sale.

4) Set up a trades directory. Either any member with a particular skillset who wants to do jobs and be paid say $xx per hour to help out a fellow Sheddie.
Or if anyone knows of a tradie they have used and would recommend.

I had 3 quotes from HIPAGES. For a painting job.
Q1 $1950.00 Q2 $1200 Q3 $600.
Took the $600 and he came on Saturday at 8:00 am Left at 3:30 job done and cleaned up.
I would recommend the guy to anyone who wants a painting job done.

These ideas may have been tried and failed for various reasons but I felt we need to give members a way of offering their services without having to volunteer.

Ex armed forces guys (do not volunteer for anything) would be roped in anyway.

Thursday in the Shed.....

Keeping everyone fed on a Thursday is becoming more of a challenge. Louis (with some home help) was up for the challenge and fed 20 plus members with an outstanding Greek feast which was enjoyed by all.

Trevor R was present and enjoyed the pool table. Wal and Romy M battled it out in round two of the pool competition with a decider in the third game.

Romy won in an exciting tussle. Only Ron S and President Doug are to complete the first round so look at the chart on the office window and arrange your round two matches.

No Thursday pool this week as we are all off to see the retired racehorses and enjoy a combined day with our partners. Keep the partners happy as they often help with the lunch offerings, eh Louis?
