“How Come”

How come on the busiest morning of the week, the biscuit barrel is nearly empty!

Now we have a permanent member of 6 days in the Shed.

Drinking coffee and eating biscuits to his little heart's content.

Now with a little bit of forethought and consideration for other members and pride in the Shed,

How about filling up the “Bikkie” barrel and making sure there is enough milk etc and the mugs are washed and put away.

What a fabulous Shed life we could all look forward to!

Just remember there's no “i” in Teamwork.

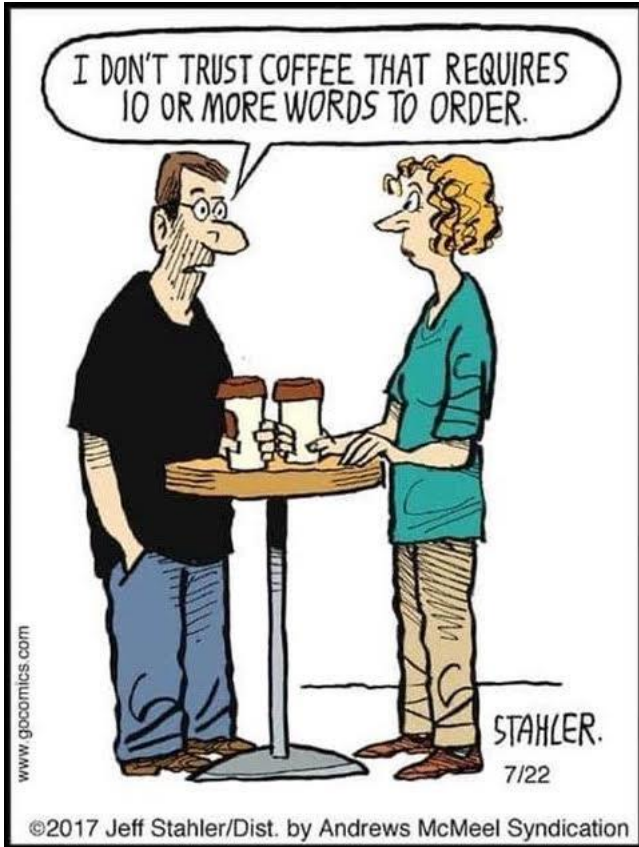

Not Hans "Solo" but with Mrs Van Dyk somewhere in Central NSW on the way to Qld.

"Try to do a good deed for someone each day."

Don't forget- If you make a mess don't wait for your Mum, you clean it up!

The SES will be coming on Tuesday to pick up their 6 little benches.
They would like to say a few words to the members and will bring along one of their trucks for us to look over.

"ALL RIGHT, EDNA, WHERE ARE MY GOLF CLUBS ?"

Okay, you guys know the drill.
Our customers finally know where to find everything.
Tonight we mix it all up again.

A small group of Thursday Trippers visited Living Legends Retirement Village for former racehorses. It is situated just near the end of Tullamarine main runway. As the Jets took off for destinations worldwide the old horses braced against the cool wind and probably told each other tales of the past. Inside the Homestead Ian and Will also recounted tales of the Past Living Legends All!

Living Legends Excursion:

For those who can't read the small print:
Now here's this week's Rogue-Aaron.
And why is he so happy and animated?
Well, he's happy with his turning accomplishments in constructing beautiful writing pens, using exotic timbers from around the world.
And finishing each piece with time consuming layers of staining and polishing.
Great work Aaron and no wonder you look so happy.

If you make a mess clean it up.

Try to do someone a good turn each day.

Look what I found!

Words from a Past President-Trevor Ratcliffe

“Hi Rodney.

I offer the following items for the Bulletin.

This morning whilst casting an eye over the Bulletin I noticed a picture of a bloke vat the Pool Table. I thought it was a new member but looking again I realised that the bloke in the picture is me! Clearly playing pool is not good for me-making me appear much older than I am.

Rodney, congratulations on recently assuming your position as Bulletin Editor and for your “lively” reporting of events.

However, I offer my thanks to the former Editor, Paul Morris who introduced the Bulletin.

Over the years the Bulletin has kept folk up to date and maintained an important means of communication for those who have not been able to attend. Thanks Paul.

“Trevor Radcliffe.”
