DON'T FORGET TO CLEAN UP AFTER YOURSELF

Thank God there's a name for this disorder.
Age-Activated Attention Deficit Disorder.

This is how it manifests:

I decide to water my garden.
As I turn on the hose in the driveway,
I look over at my car and decide it needs washing.

As I start toward the garage,
I notice mail on the porch table that
I brought up from the mailbox earlier.

I decide to go through the mail before I wash
the car.

I lay my keys on the table,
Put the junk mail in the garbage can under the table,
And notice that the can is full.

So, I decide to put the bills back
On the table and take out the garbage first.....

But then I think,
Since I'm going to be near the mailbox
When I take out the garbage anyway,
I may as well pay the bills first.

I take my check book off the table,
And see that there is only one check left.
My extra checks are in my desk in the study,

So I go inside the house to my desk where
I find the can of Diet Coke that I had been drinking.

I'm going to look for my checks,
But first I need to push the Diet Coke aside
So that I don't accidentally knock it over.

The Diet Coke is getting warm,
And I decide to put it in the Refrigerator to Keep it cold.

As I head toward the kitchen with the

Diet Coke,
A vase of flowers on the counter
Catches my eye---they need water.

I put the Diet Coke on the counter and Discover my reading glasses that
I've been searching for all morning
I decide I better put them back on my desk,
But first I'm going to water the flowers.

I set the glasses back down on the counter,
Fill a container with water and suddenly spot the TV
Remote.

Someone left it on the kitchen table.

I realize tonight when we go to Watch TV,
I'll be looking for the remote,
But I won't remember that it's on the kitchen table,
So I decide to put it back in the den where
It belongs.
But first I'll water the flowers.

I pour some water in the flowers,
But quite a bit spills on the floor.

So, I set the remote back on the table,

Get some towels and wipe up the spill.

Then, I head down the hall trying to
Remember what I was planning to do.

At the end of the day
The car isn't washed.

Springtime in Mordialloc.

Wow the excitement is building for our September 12th excursion to bayside playground of glorious Mordialloc with beach and creek. Not to mention a long pier and an old water tower to replenish the steam trains in days gone past.

All this and more with the chance to choose your own takeaway from the “Mordi” shops and devour your lunch at Mordialloc’s famous Wine Bar. Where wine by the glass or coffee is consumed with your selected takeaway. (and owned by Len Follet’s son, so we’ll be supporting Len in his old age perhaps?)

So, mark up your diary, tell the missus and contain your excitement.

“BE THERE”

“How the Fight Started”

My Wife and I were watching “Who Wants to be a Millionaire” while we were in bed.

I turned to her and said “do you want to have sex?”

No, she answered.

I then said “is that your final answer?”

She didn’t even look at me this time, simply saying yes.

So, I said “I’d like to phone a friend”

And that’s when the fight started!

- Thursday with The Naughty Boys-Pool Comp.

Last week's results:

Ron defeated Doug 1st round 2/1

Tony R and Rom were tied 1 game all in 2nd round with decider to be played this week.

Glenn defeated Terry in 2nd round, first frame with 2nd to play this week

Ron to play Ian this week in round 2.

This week Tony R defeated Romy, Glenn defeated Terry and Ron defeated Ian.

Now into Preliminary Finals.

This week's Master Chef is Howard cooking up a curry storm all for the princely sum of $5.00.

Our Thursday program was really humming this week with a special luncheon provided by a satisfied recipient of some Shed Endeavour in the form of a large preparation and chopping table constructed by Howard and his helpers. Plenty of food for over 25 members and 6 visiting guests on a placement experience as a part of their university studies.

Everyone joined in the usual exercise program then Pool and Bowls. The workshop guys were at it as well. Ingrid helped Howard dispense the 3-course meal and everyone was greatly impressed.

This Thursday's Corned Beef etc has been postponed for one more week due to NBN technical problems.

The NB as usual will come up with something worthy of your $5.00.

Only one way to find out, bring $5.00 and join in.

The money collected for the donated luncheon will be used to purchase a new activity for the Thursday Boys.

Rogue's Gallery No. 4

Ian Cole has been a little despondent over the last few weeks despite various members trying to help Car troubles. When your car is older than many members of the shed-things sometimes go wrong.

The tappets were connected to the exhaust thingy by a 6 volt battery on the left hand drive of the carby which had a sticking butterfly or was it a moth?

But money solves most problems, and the Naughty Boys all travelled together to the Shed this week in the Green Machine where Peter W performed his magic on the radio.

Smile Ian!

Terry has lodged a protest due to the fact there was no NDIS Judge presiding over the games.
