“ROGUE OF THE WEEK”

None other than our illustrious VP Ronald Stirling. Here he is casually drifting down (or is it up) the mighty Murray River, just a few weeks ago. He's the Naughty Boy who can not only organise his own outings but step up and help his mates when they are taken ill or have been called to do other manly tasks! A good man to call a friend!

Dandenong Club President, Charlie Daly had the pleasure of presenting Endeavour Hills Men's Shed with a $5,000.00 cheque to assist with their fund-raising activities.
On 29th November 2018.

Activities @ EHMS, 26th November 2024

Doug and Paul sharing news and planning the next few week's events and projects.

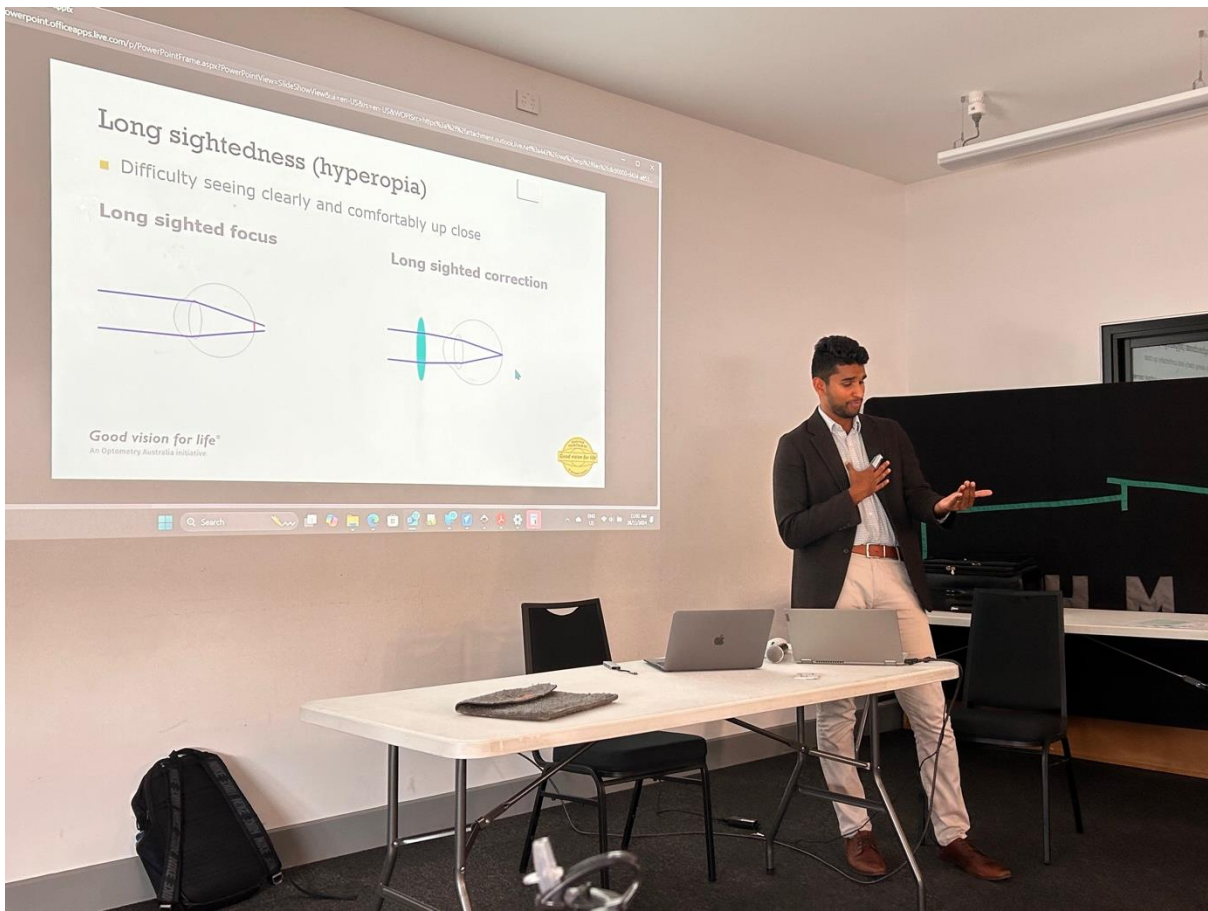

We had a presentation on Eyesight Health and services available to us locally.

Stan, Graeme and team provided a great BBQ lunch as usual, thanks chaps!

Then project work, music practice and fun activities until after 5pm.

Heads down etc. etc.

An informative and well-presented presentation!

Bulletin Tin Bull.

Get ready for Christmas break-up at Myuna Farm on Thursday 12 December.

Have you registered all your personal attendees? Christmas Dinner is provided out of the shed funds, but we require $5 per head registration. This Tuesday is last call for registration, and we need names of your "extras" so we can provide name tags and prizes.

President Doug is going nuts working out the EHMS Orchestra play list. This new feature will surely impress and add to our fun.

Plan to arrive about 5pm so Steve of Myuna Farm and his crew can close the farm and refresh the toilets from 4.30pm.

A great fun evening so please try to be there and bring your own serious drinks, but we will look after the kids drinks.

Remember Tuesday for registering with Wal of the Naughty Boys.

Ambulance visits postponed.

Last minute cancellation of our Thursday trip due to illness at the Museum including a bit of Covid (Remember those days????). The day was used for planning the Christmas break-up so not entirely wasted.

Rodney James has constructed a 3D printed bust of Glenn Blackburn from a photo 2D in the Bulletin's Rogues Gallery of two issues ago. This blows my mind that a flat or single surface can be "cast" into a 3-dimensional object by computer scanning and printing. Guess I'm getting old (Ish) Graeme Seymour came second in a rolling around contest. The winner was the floor, but it was all "armless" fun giving Graeme a bit of lip.

ADVANCED MATH

If Joe is 64 years old and his girlfriend is 23, How much money does Joe have?

Aaron busily making some more miniature Chinese digeridoos!

Can't find the spare key and Carmelo in his usual possie planning his next overseas jaunt, it's also good to see that he only eats homemade meals whilst away!

Special shout out to people at the laundromat using their new iPhone 15.

You could've bought a washer & dryer for the same price.

Bob living the dream!

VP Ron, addressing the troops!

Some full bellies!

OH, YOU HAVE YOUR CHOICE
OF 20 MOVIES FOR THE CAR?

WHEN I WAS A KID, I WATCHED
THE SAME THING EVERY TRIP.
IT WAS CALLED THE WINDOW.

Where's the first aid box? Or is that a rude remark?

Another romantic evening comes
... and goes

The excitement is overwhelming!

Thanks to my contributors:
Ron, Wal, Howard, Wil

Mr. Fixit Peter hard at it as usual.

Wife: You'll be so proud of me.

I saved $9 at Costco.

Me: How much did you spend?

Wife: $600
