"You're fired, Jack. The lab results just came back, and you tested positive for Coke."

Get well soon Paul!

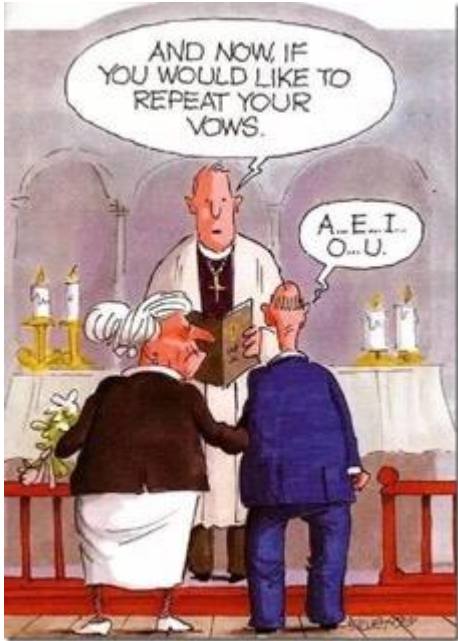

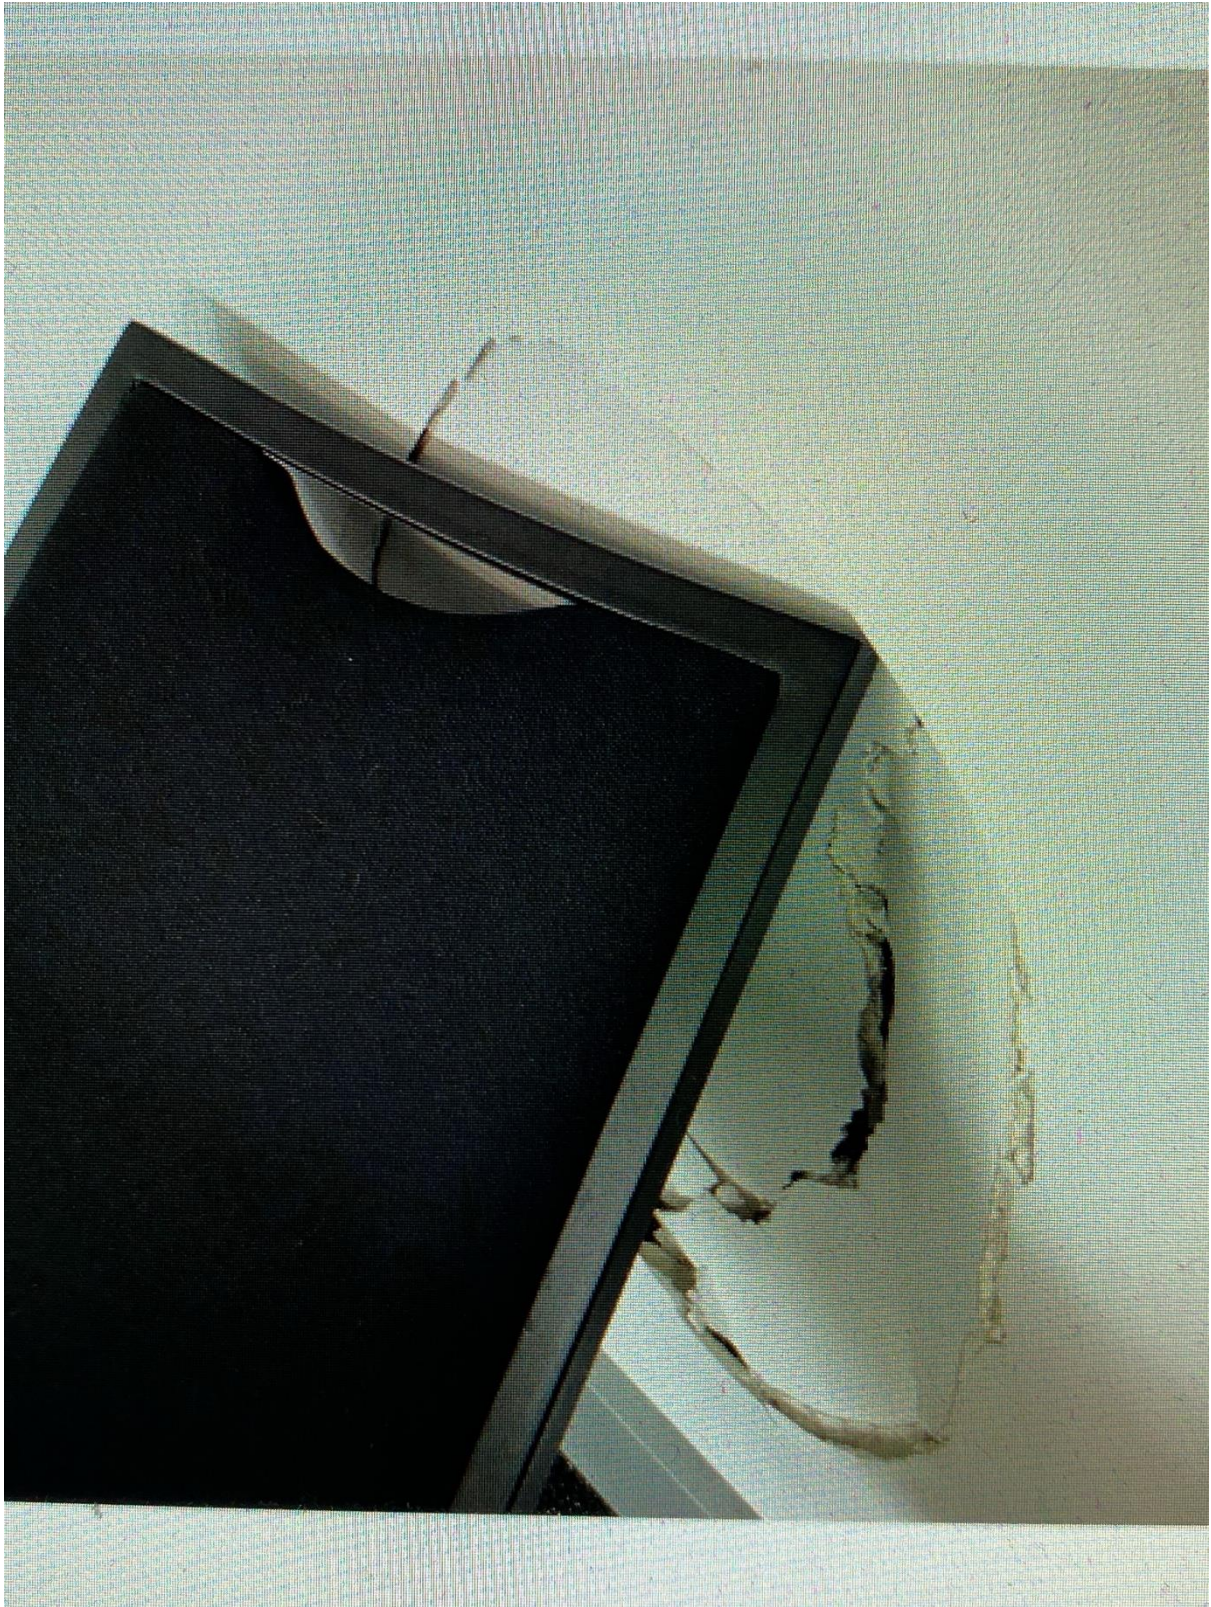

A new shelf for the Office

The Committee are putting in an eftpos machine “Hole in the Wall” stay tuned for further developments.

Bull In Tin

Crash Bang Wallop

Terry took a tumble on Thursday as he moved from his walker to a chair and lost balance.

Quite a shock for Terry but fortunately several members and his carer were able to get him up on his feet and attend to him.

The wall will also need some first aid. (See photo)

Reminder that our annual subs will be coming up and the biggest ticket item in our fee is the individual insurance of each member.

Let Us Spray

Bob was wielding the paint sprayer on Thursday after lunch. He was adding the final touch to the trailer restored over the Christmas break.

What will happen to the flash trailer now?

Rumour?

The well attended Open Day of 2024 organised by Tony B was discussed at the Committee meeting this month and it was thought that general members might assist in the arranging of Open Day/s for 2025. Carmelo in discussion with Tony may well be our convenor this time around and would obviously like some help from other members. Perhaps suggestions or offers to Carmelo so that new displays and activities can be showcased and build upon the successful Open Day last year.

Date is yet to be set.

Australia Day

Great presentation by Vin on Tuesday who subbed for Wal who was to make the presentation but had to attend medical consultation with surgeon for his wife Jan. Jan has knee damage from her earlier career in the WAFL as a ruck person! (Dodgy information)

Ambulance Museum

This Thursday so no meal at the shed. Bring cash for entry ($10). Money for pub lunch.

Thanks go as usual to my contributors:
Howard, Ron, Ross, John G, Tony B, Garrick's daughter.
