Rowville Men's Shed Open Day

Police Rd. Rowville.

At the last count we had 89 members, are you one of them.

A very important matter was raised by our VP Ron this morning concerning the so-called lack of volunteers in the shed.

Ron's argument was that all members are individuals, some are active some are not. Just coming to the shed for manly company, a cup of coffee and a chin wag. All for the good of Men's Health and not having to volunteer for work unless they want to.

Ron Perrin, Rogue of the Week.

Displaying his Hawaiian shirt. Ron had the shirt tailor made on an overseas trip in 1988 or 1987.

Good quality workmanship with crisp collars and tailoring.

Perhaps a challenge for “Conversation shirt Brian”

Discussion after Tuesday's Hearing Loss session as Rob explained his successful ear wax clean out. Graeme and Rodney look a little unsure about blasting their ears with a water cannon.

Rob purchased his at his local Post Office. He uses it twice a week to keep his ears pristine.

It's a WUSH by Black Wolf. A water powered ear cleaner and ear wax remover.

Sold at Post Offices, Bunnings and Amazon.

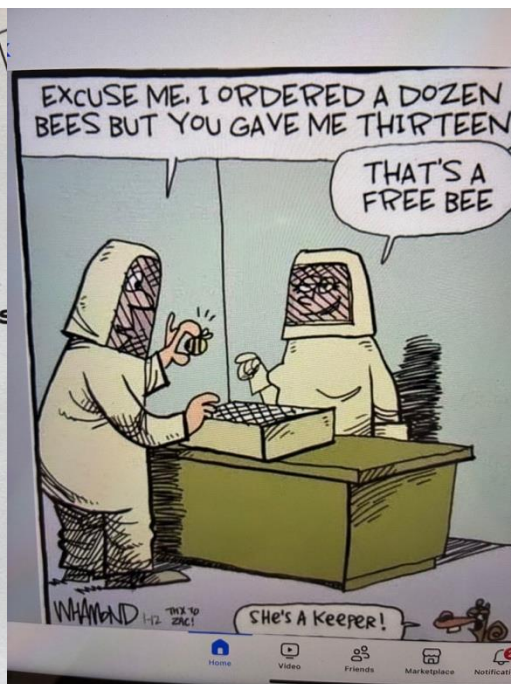

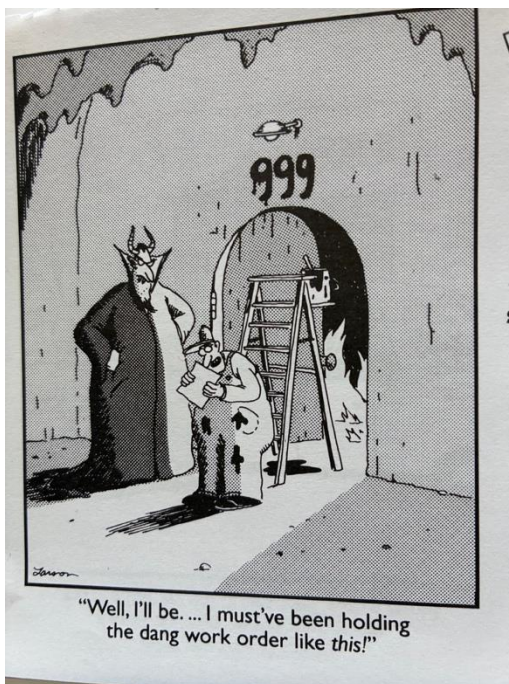

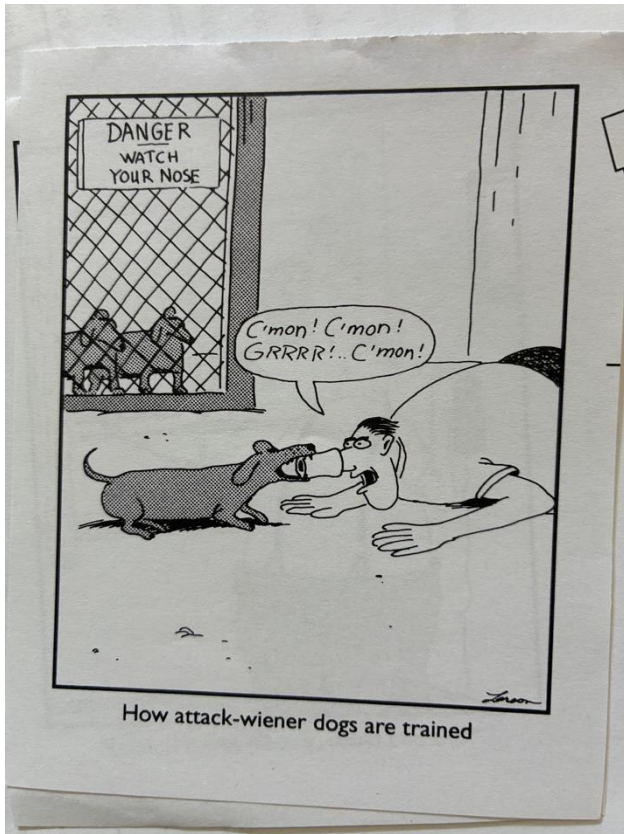

"It wasn't me, Dad! It was Randy's musk glands!"

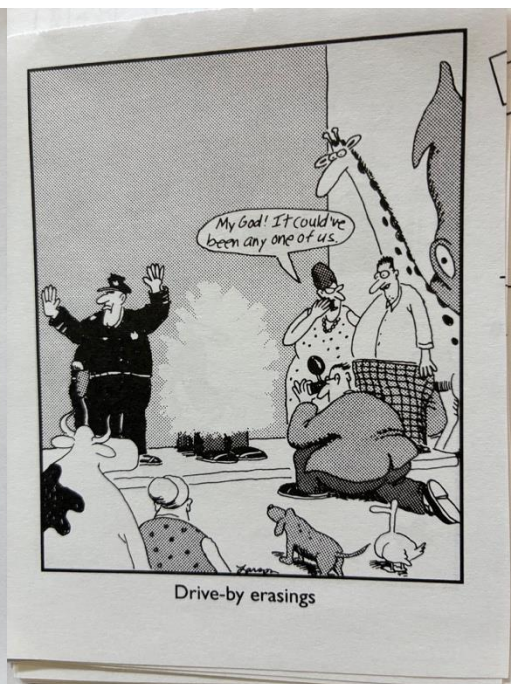

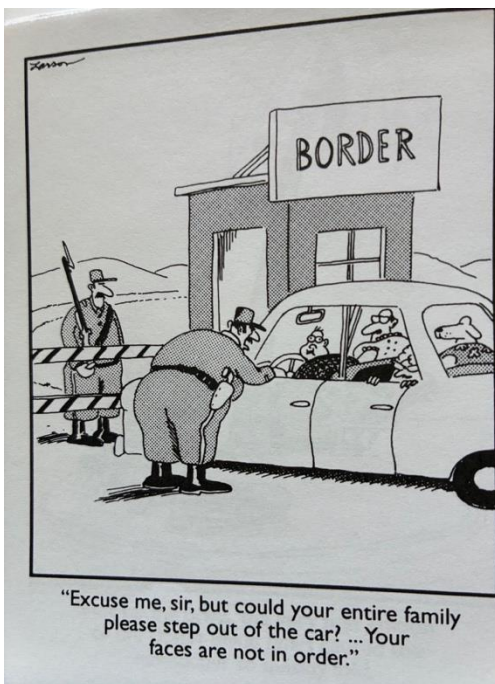

"Look, if it was electric, could I do this?"

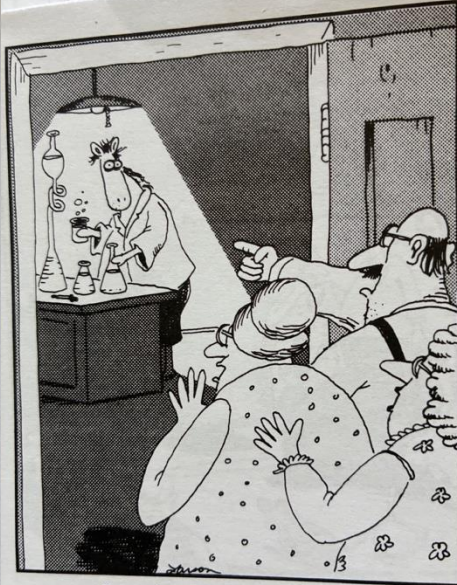

Riding for the disabled at Myuna Farm.
Tony B, Louie, Rommie and Bob.

Hot off the press, the very first edition of the Desert Island Times caused the newspaper to quickly fold.

Scene from Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Ed
